

House Resolution No. 3988

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who admirably have demonstrated their potential as lifelong learners and future societal leaders through their stellar accomplishments as students; and

Whereas, Danielle Michaelis has attained considerable distinction as the eighteen-year-old daughter of Jerry and Diana Michaelis of Mercer and granddaughter of the late Larry Michaelis and Mary Michaelis of Mercer, Mia Nelly of Princeton, and Jim and Carol Perkins of Unionville; and

Whereas, the salutatorian of her graduating class at Mercer High School in the North Mercer R-III School District, Danielle Michaelis enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when she became National Champion in Word Processing II competition at the 2005 Future Business Leaders of America National Conference which was held from June 24 to June 27, 2005, in Orlando, Florida; and

Whereas, Danielle Michaelis competed against 200,000 other students from the United States, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Bermuda, Guam, the Cayman Islands, and Europe at the 54th FBLA Conference; and

Whereas, in addition to her six years with FBLA, Danielle Michaelis was involved in several sports during her high school years; and

Whereas, Danielle Michaelis plans to attend Northwest Missouri State University to study marketing and management; and

Whereas, Future Business Leaders of America is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) education association of students preparing for careers in business and business-related fields; and

Whereas, the mission of Future Business Leaders of America is to bring business and education together in a positive working relationship through innovative leadership and career development programs:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and academic achievements garnered thus far in the life of Danielle Michaelis and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations upon attaining First Place in Word Processing II competition at the 2005 National Future Business Leaders Conference in Orlando, Florida; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Danielle Michaelis of Mercer, Missouri.
